

Margarita Estrada
estrada prospeaker.com
Email: margarita@estrada prospeaker.com

Margarita Estrada is a bi-lingual (Spanish/English) author and former panic attack sufferer turned award-winning goal-focused speaker, presenter, and coach.

She speaks on the 360-degree employer/employee model, leadership, emotive communication, and presenting with power and confidence on both in person and virtual platforms. As an experienced speaker, she has conducted training and delivered talks at leadership conferences and corporate events on both virtual and in-person platforms and is a sought-after emcee for speakers.

Known in literary circles as ‘The Well-Connected Writer’, she has been called a skilled wordsmith and storyteller. In the year 2018, she was compelled to write, Vignettes of a Family Journey, a bi-lingual memoir that brings awareness about Alzheimer’s and dementia from the family’s point of view. Her articles have been featured in newsletters for several organizations, and she is a regular contributor to LinkedIn. She has also been featured in local newspapers and magazines.

Margarita is a graduate of Montclair State University, where she earned a BA in Communication, graduated Magna Cum Laude, and was co-founder of the Public Relations Student Society of America. Margarita has received the highest educational and leadership award from Toastmasters International, Distinguished Toastmaster, and is a member of District 83’s OMNI-PRO Speakers Bureau (www.omniprospb.com).